Art Unit: 1631

DETAILED ACTION

1. The art unit designated for this application has changed. Applicant(s) are hereby informed that future correspondence should be directed to Art Unit 1631.

Restriction/Election Requirement

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. § 121:

I. Claims 1-29, 31-40, drawn to methods of analyzing RNA from a sample and a system for doing such, classified in Class 435, subclass 6.

II. Claim 30, drawn to a kit for the detection of nucleic acid, classified in class 435, subclass 6.

3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

4. The inventions of Groups I and II are related as product and distinct processes of using. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (M.P.E.P. § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process of claim I can be practiced by using the kit of Group II, but can also be practiced by using the systems as that claimed in claims 28 and 29, which are different from the kit in claim 30. It is noted that group II is a generic kit, which has no direct relationship with the invention of group I. Further, the kit of group II may be used in the process of group I, but it can also be used for other distinct processes, such as radioactively labeling a nucleic acid probe, labeling a chromosome, etc.

5. Because these inventions are independent/distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art, and thus are usually published separately in the literature because of their recognized divergent subject matter, and/or acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, there would be undue search burden if they were examined together. Therefore, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

9. A telephone call was not made to applicants to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement due to the complex nature of the requirement (MPEP 812.01).

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shubo (Joe) Zhou, whose telephone number is 571-272-0724. The examiner can normally be reached Monday-Friday from 8 A.M. to 4 P.M.
